Any reference to "we", "us" or "our" means MedDen Financial Services LLP.

At MedDen we take all reasonable steps to ensure that any information, data, services, systems, articles, bulletins and other content ("Content") published from time to time on the Website is accurate and complete and complies with relevant English legislation and regulations as at the date of issue.

However, we regret that no liability can be accepted for any errors or omissions. We reserve the right at any time to change the content, presentation, performance, facilities and availability of all or part of the pages of this site at our sole discretion and without prior notice. We reserve the right at any time, and without prior notice, to remove or cease to supply any product or service contained on this website. In the event of any such change or removal we shall not be liable to you in any way whatsoever for such change or removal.

Whilst the Website service is as broad and comprehensive as possible, any comparative information on financial products and services provided by the Website may not include all products and services that are available on the market.

Much of the information and data about financial products and services on the Website is provided to us by third party suppliers. Whilst we endeavour to ensure that the information on the Website is accurate and up to date, there may be occasions when this is not possible. For instance, when a product provider changes product rates or features, a period of time may elapse before we are notified of such a change and are able to update the Website. This is particularly the case when base rates change, or other major unforeseeable financial events occur.

Whilst we take all reasonable steps to ensure that the information on the Website is accurate and up to date, neither MedDen nor its suppliers warrant that it is. You acknowledge and agree that neither MedDen nor its suppliers have any control over the accuracy or completeness of third party data and all liability in respect of the same is expressly excluded to the maximum extent permitted by law.

We therefore recommend that you check the accuracy and completeness of any Content with an independent financial adviser before purchasing any financial products or services.

The Content of the Website is intended for general information only and should not be construed as advice under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. The Website does not constitute financial, investment or tax advice and does not give you advice that relates to your specific circumstances. We recommend that you take appropriate professional and legal advice before entering into any binding contracts.

It is important that you do not rely solely upon the Content to make investment decisions. This site should not be regarded as an offer or solicitation to sell investments in any jurisdiction. The provision of details, products or services on these pages are not, and should not, be construed as an offer for us to sell or for you to buy such products or services from us, and we may in our absolute discretion accept or reject any offer from you.

If you intend to act on any information on the Website you should first confirm the details of the product or service (including costs and key features) with the product provider. If you are in any doubt as to the suitability of a product or service that you are intending to purchase or any aspect of your personal finances, we recommend that you seek independent financial advice first. If you would like independent financial advice, you can ring 01132 470088 between 9am – 4.45pm, Monday to Friday and one of our advisers will contact you at your convenience to discuss your requirements.

All prices and information quoted on the Website are indicative rather than definitive. The Website does not constitute an offer to buy, sell or provide any financial products or services, nor does the Website comprise any form of investment advertisement.

You may use the Website and Content for your own private, non-professional use only. You may not use, copy, disseminate, distribute or re-sell the Website or Content (or any part thereof) for any commercial use or purpose whatsoever without our prior written consent. In particular, you may not use the Website or Content for carrying out or offering investment business as defined in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 in any capacity.

If you copy, frame, cache, deep link or set up a direct feed to any of the pages of the Website, these Terms of Use and the Privacy Policy will continue to apply.
